Master Trainer Justin Hale will discuss how to break through communication barriers during his Opening Keynote as part of the 2021 training which includes over 60 workshops and sessions.

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. – April 20, 2021 – FDR Training, the nation’s leading federal employment law training event attracting ADR, EEO, Legal, HR, LR and ER professionals from nearly every federal agency, announced program details for the event taking place August 16 - 19, 2021 at the Orlando World Center Marriott. The Opening Keynote session “Breaking Through Communication Barriers,” presented by Justin Hale, will kick off the program that also features 60+ workshops and sessions covering a variety of topics including EEO, HR, LR, ER, ADR and Legal Issues.

Hale, Speaker and Training Designer at VitalSmarts, a top 20 leadership training company, will review how to break through communication barriers, speak candidly about risky topics and make it safe to talk about almost anything during this pivotal time when teams are finally coming back together. His keynote will occur at 8:30 a.m. on Tuesday, August 17.

At FDR Training, attendees will expand their knowledge while meeting 2021 training requirements through timely and relevant workshops and sessions. The FDR-exclusive Town Hall Conversations sessions will give attendees specific time for open dialogues with renowned federal leaders from the EEOC, FLRA, FMCS, MSPB, OPM and OSC.

“Most of us have spent the last year physically separated from colleagues, bosses, and agency stakeholders — only meeting virtually or by text and email,” said Leslie Lake, Vice President, Federal Editorial, LRP Media Group. “Now we’re coming together again, and the need for healthy, effective communication is more important than ever. Justin understands how communication barriers are created – and most importantly – how they can be dismantled. It’s a skillset we all must master.”

FDR Training provides unparalleled and timely training that will help attendees in their current jobs AND in the future. In addition to Hale’s presentation, FDR will feature workshops and sessions addressing the latest regulations and best practices including those stemming from the COVID-19 pandemic and new policies under the Biden administration. The event will also feature the luncheon keynote, “Breaking Down Gender Barriers in the Workplace”, with transgender speaker and author on inclusion, diversity and healthcare, Ryan Sallans.

Each of the seven session tracks at FDR is carefully created to answer all attendee questions and provide agency guidance for various topics including EEO, HR, Labor Relations, Employee Relations, Alternative Dispute Resolution, Legal Issues, and much more.

Attendees who register for the 2021 FDR Training event by April 23, 2021 will receive Super Savings of $200.00 off a Premium Pass. For more information and to register visit www.FDRTraining.com or call toll-free 1-800-727-1227.
