FDR Training Announces Two Captivating Keynotes for 2022 In-Person Event

Opening Keynote speaker Mika Cross will offer innovative and practical strategies to transform federal work environments while Luncheon Keynote speaker Amy Herman will demonstrate the relevance of visual literacy to enhancing everyday job skills.

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. – March 15, 2022 – FDR Training, the nation’s leading federal civil service law training event attracting professionals from nearly every federal agency, announced Federal Workplace Expert for Flexjobs, Mika Cross, as the Opening Keynote speaker and President of The Art of Perception, Amy Herman, as the Luncheon Keynote speaker. These keynotes will complement more than 60 workshops and sessions covering a variety of topics including Equal Employment Opportunity, Human Resources, Labor Relations, Employee Relations, Alternative Dispute Resolution, Legal Issues, and much more during the event August 8 - 11, 2022 at the Sheraton Phoenix Downtown.

Cross will introduce both innovative and practical strategies to transform federal agency work environments while increasing productivity and performance as well as show how agencies can modernize management practices to hire, retain and engage the diverse workforce of today and tomorrow. Her Opening Keynote, Transforming the Federal Workplace: Post-Pandemic Realities and Opportunities, will take place on Tuesday, August 9 at 8:30 a.m.

Herman will present the Luncheon Keynote, The Art of Perception, on Wednesday, August 10 at 12 p.m. She will reveal how attendees can sharpen their visual intelligence to recognize the most pertinent and useful information to identify biases that create conflict. Herman will also demonstrate the relevance of visual literacy to enhancing everyday job skills as well as leadership competencies such as empathy, intuitive understanding and appreciation for diverse viewpoints.

“Federal agencies are facing unprecedented challenges, and Mika and Amy will both provide their unique perspectives to help our attendees ensure their workforces thrive in today's ‘newest normal,’” said Leslie Lake, Vice President, Federal Editorial, LRP Media Group.

At the 2022 event, attendees will hear from the nation’s top federal experts as they discuss the latest changes in laws, regulations and administration priorities impacting the federal workforce and gain the opportunity to earn their annual training requirements. In more than 60 workshops and sessions, attendees will be able to explore today's critical issues, including reasonable accommodation requests, continuing leave and attendance issues related to COVID-19, and more.

Attendees who register for the 2022 FDR Training event by April 15 will receive Super Savings of $200.00 off a Premium Pass. For more information and to register visit www.FDRtraining.com or call toll-free 1-800-727-1227.
