FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

FDR Training Explores Latest Trends in EEO, ADR, HR/LR/ER, and Legal Matters in More Than 60 Sessions and Workshops

The 2018 event will provide attendees with unparalleled networking opportunities and the chance to connect with agency leaders

Palm Beach Gardens, FL. (June 20, 2018). – FDR Training, the nation’s leading dispute resolution training event attracting influential decision-makers from nearly every federal agency, announced program details for the August 13 - 16, 2018 event. The program will feature more than 60 workshops and sessions covering a variety of topics including free speech and religious liberty in the federal workplace, employee discipline, reasonable accommodation, sexual harassment, civil service reform, and much more. This will create an opportunity to hear from leaders such as Jeff T.H. Pon, Office of Personnel Management Director, and many other agency leaders from the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Federal Labor Relations Authority, Office of Special Counsel and the Merit Systems —Protection Board.

Attendees will expand their knowledge while meeting 2018 training requirements through timely and relevant workshops and sessions plus gain vital insights into agencies’ goals and pitfalls. Providing insights through sessions like EEOC Mock Hearing, Make Your Training Work: It’s Time to Chuck the Box and The Value of Non-Monetary Settlements will get authoritative guidance and best practices to avoid costly claims and learn how to keep their agencies compliant and performing efficiently.

Additionally, FDR Training will feature a variety of sessions from Inventing the Better Wheel: Rethinking Federal ADR in the 21st Century, Hatch Act and the Midterm Elections and Don’t Make It Worse: Recognize and Combat Retaliation. Plus, this event gives attendees a rare opportunity to ask industry experts and leaders specific questions while networking and collaborating with peers during Town Hall Conversations.

Registration is now open for FDR 2018. Professionals registering before June 27 will receive the Early Bird discount and as an added bonus, FDR’s highly-desirable Workshop Day — a $650.00 value — is included in the Premium Pass for only $99 more than a Basic Pass.
